

English Activity Guidance

1.

Carry on writing your daily diary.

Carry on writing a few sentences every day about what you have been doing at home.

This week, you could think about:

Did you celebrate VE Day?

Have you watched any films?

What are you missing the most about school?

Important!

This is a job for every day.

Don't forget to ask a grown-up for help if you need to.

If you are struggling you could draw me a picture with some labels instead.

2.
Story editing!

Your stories last week were brilliant, but I think you can make them even better!

Here are some ideas on how you could improve your seaside story:

 First, check your full stops and capital letters are in the right place.

  Could you add another character? Maybe a friend  or a naughty seagull?

 You could change the setting.  Think about a tropical beach,  with coconuts, dolphins and turtles,  instead of an English beach.

Draw pictures to help you.

Ask a grown-up for help if you need to.

3.
Do some reading!

I would really love you to do as much reading as you possibly can!

I would like you to:

Choose some books you would like to read.

Use your reading passport to travel around the world.

10 minutes of reading will earn you 500 miles.

To travel all the way around the world, you need to earn 33000 miles! That is 66 hours of reading!

Ask a grown-up to listen to you read.

Find the Global Reading Challenge in our class folder on the website.

You should have passed Brazil and be on your way to Kenya by now!

4. This week I have chosen another two stories to focus on and I'd like you to read both!
