

Matilda Chapter 8: The Trunchbull

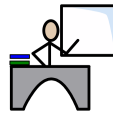

Miss Honey speaks to the headmistress, Miss Trunchbull, about Matilda. She tells Miss Trunchbull how clever Matilda is.

Miss Trunchbull is surprised because she has met Mr. Wormwood who is Matilda's father. Miss Trunchbull has bought a car from Mr. Wormwood. She is pleased with the car and so thinks Mr. Wormwood is a good man. He has told her Matilda is "a real wart".

Miss Honey tries to say Matilda is wonderful. Miss Trunchbull says the father must know her the best so she does not believe Miss Honey. She thinks Miss Honey wants to move Matilda to a different class because she is difficult to teach.

Miss Honey is determined to help Matilda. She thinks Matilda is special and has amazing brain power!
