Matilda's dad, Mr. Wormwood, has a hat that he really likes to wear. He thinks it makes him look cool. Matilda puts superglue on it. When he puts it on, it sticks to his head. He only realises when he gets to work. The hat will not come off. He has to wear it all day! Then he has to wear it all evening, and all night! It is not comfy to sleep in. Next morning, Matilda's mum tries to cut it off. Mr. Wormwood looks like he has headlice! He doesn't know it was Matilda who put the superglue on his hat. At the end of the chapter, Mr. Wormwood is still being mean to Matilda for no good reason.
