
 Name:

 Date:

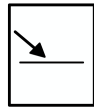

13

Love That Dog Up to and including 'March 13'

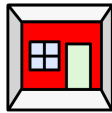

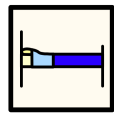

L.O.: to be able to: work out some answers about Jack's poems;

Abcd
Abcd

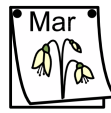

copy out a few lines from a favourite poem, song or story

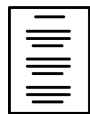

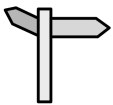

ABC

to stick on your bedroom wall; practise writing the alphabet

14

1. Read the poems written in March up to March 14.

Where is the poem going to be put?

.....

What

does

Jack

think about

the

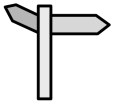

poem

by

Walter Dean Myers?

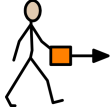

Where

did

Jack

take

the

book

with the

poem

by

Walter Dean Myers in it?

Who

is

Jack

saying sorry to?

Read

the

poem

by

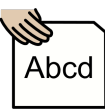

Walter Dean Myers.

What

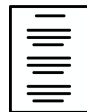

lines/words

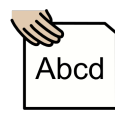

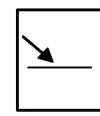

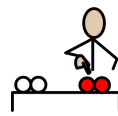

are repeated

in the

poem?

Why do you think the poet repeats these lines/words?

.....

What are the poet's feelings about the boy?

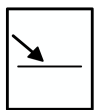

.....

.....

What was the name of Jack's dog?

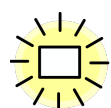

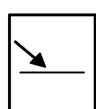

Now choose a favourite poem, song or story and write a few lines from it here:

.....

.....
.....
.....
 Now  on a  new  piece of paper, or a  computer, design a  poster for these  lines. You can use  colour,  pictures,  drawings and any decoration  you want.

 When it is finished,  put  it on your  bedroom  wall!

  ABC  **!!
(Don't forget to do the alphabet sheets - especially if you

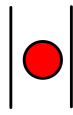

know

you

get confused

between

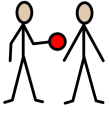

capitals

and lower case

letters

abc

in

your

writing)

